

Curriculum Vitae

- Bernd Wagner, Prof. Dr.,
 - Environmental Science Centre, University of Augsburg , Scientific Director
 - Institute for Management and the Environment (imu-augsburg GmbH&Co.KG), (Founder and External Director until 2015)
 - Verein für Umweltmanagement und Nachhaltigkeit in Finanzinstituten e.V. (VfU), Association for Sustainability in Financial Institutions, Chairman
- Born in Neckarsulm, Germany; Highschool in Neckarsulm and Portola, California, USA
- Studies in Business Administration and Organizational Psychology in Munich and Paris
- Foundation of the Management Training Center, University of Augsburg, in 1974, Director from 1999 to 2007
- 1982-84 Professor of Management and Organization Development at University of Sierra Leone, Freetown, Sierra Leone, West Africa
- 1986 Professor of Technology Transfer for the EU in Beijing, China
- Foundation and M. o. B. of the Institute for Management and the Environment (imu Augsburg GmbH&Co.KG, Research and Consultancy (outside University), 1994
- Foundation and M. o. B. of the German Association for Sustainability in Financial Institutions ("VfU"), Bonn, 1995, Chairman since then
- Several environmental awards for company projects (e.g. by the Federal German Industrial Association - BDI - in 1992) and for scientific contributions, awarded by the German Environmental Minister and by the German Environmental Companies Association ("B.A.U.M.") in 1998
- Since 1999 Head of Management Training Centre (ZWW), Director Exec MBA-Studies and project leader "eco-effizienz" (Material Flow Cost Accounting) at the University of Augsburg, Germany
- Award as best university model for university continuing education and management training by the Foundation Association for German Science in 2004
- Main topics of interest: Finance and Sustainability, Corporate Sustainability Management including Sustainability Management Systems and Auditing, Sustainability Indicators and Controlling, Mass and Energy Balances, Environmental and Material Flow Cost Accounting, Sustainability and Integrated Reporting, Investors Relations and Benchmarking, Change and Development, CSR, Organizational Culture
- Member of various international bodies, like the UNEP Expert Working Group on Environmental Management Accounting, of the UNEP FI Observer Group on Environmental Performance Indicators for the International Finance Sector.